

USSAAC

The voice of AAC

AAC and All That Jazz

When: February 21-23, 2008

Where: The Lindy Boggs International Conference Center in New Orleans

By supporting AAC and All That Jazz, you are helping to rebuild the AAC community that refuses to be wiped out by mere wind and water!

Costs: Early bird registration $275. $325 (after January 15, 2008).

Rates for people from LA, TX and MS $75 (early). $100 (after January 15, 2008).

Speakers: Meher Banajee, Sarah Blackstone, Donna Broussard and Quentina Timoll, Janie Cirlot-New and Tim Morse, Sharon Edwards and Kristie Stapler, Pam Elder, Richard Ellenson, Kelly Fonner, Lewis Golinker, Tracy Kovach, Pamela Mathy, Debby McBride, Pat Mirinda, Caroline Musselwhite, Pat Ourand, Harvey Pressman, Pegi Young, Joy Zabala, etc.

Related Events:

- * Preconference (February 20, 2008) AAC Gulf ACTION Corps meeting.
- * AAC and All the Jazz GALA (February 21, 2008). A gathering of the AAC community at the House of Blues in the French Quarter. Hosted by singer/songwriter Pegi Young, co-founder of the Bridge School.
- * 2008 Mentoring/Coaching kick off and other "afterconference" activities
- * Vendor exhibits

To register for AAC and All That Jazz. Go to www.ussaac.org/allthatjazzregister.html Print out the registration form and register by email; phone (831-649-3050); fax (831-646-5428) or mail (All that Jazz c/o 1 Surf Way, #237, Monterey, CA) using a credit card, check or purchase order.

Register early. Space IS limited!

Conference Hotel: Hotel Chateau Sonesta in the French Quarter. $139 (single/double) per night plus taxes. Make your reservations EARLY.

Call 504-586-0800. Ask for AAC and All that Jazz reservations. Group #67D6U5

Or make your reservation online through our hotel link at www.ussaac.org/allthatjazzregister.html

If you can't come to the conference, please consider donating to the effort.

Go to www.ussaac.org to make a tax deductible donation.

Help USSAAC rebuild AAC communities – and lives

Questions? Email us at allthatjazz@ussaac.com